Thank you for your interest in the Summer Readiness Program (SRP). The program is a six-week orientation for incoming EOPS eligible freshmen designed to bridge the high school and college experience by promoting academic and personal growth, and the ability to navigate Delta College while introducing participants to university transfer information. Students who complete the 2011-12 and 2012-13 FAFSA (www.fafsa.ed.gov) may be eligible for financial grants.

SUMMER READINESS PROGRAM

Program will run from June 11 to July 19, 2012

EOPS SUMMER READINESS PROGRAM ELIGIBILITY CHECKLIST

Before the EOPS staff can determine your eligibility for the Summer Readiness Program, students must:

1. Complete the Delta College Admissions Application.
2. Complete the Delta College Assessment/Placement (A/P).
3. Apply for the Board of Governors Grant Fee Waiver for 2011-12 (BOGW A or B ONLY)
4. If the only educational criteria you meet is 4c above; you must submit an unofficial high school transcript with your SRP application when it becomes available.
5. Submit unofficial transcripts for college courses taken at other institutions with the SRP application.

Once you have completed the checklist above, submit the EOPS Summer Readiness Program (SRP) application on the back of this flyer to the EOPS office located in DeRicco Building, room 234. Applications will be reviewed to verify eligibility. Incomplete applications will not be considered. Applications can be submitted from April 9th – May 11th. Students accepted into the 2012 SRP will be notified by their Delta College e-mail to schedule a mandatory orientation.
STUDENT APPLICATION  Only completed applications will be reviewed. You must answer each question, do not leave anything blank. Please check your Delta College student email regarding your status in the program.
